

Legal Marijuana & Our Teens

Voters approved Initiative 502, legalizing recreational marijuana for adult use in Washington State. Yet marijuana remains illegal for teens and remains a federal crime in all 50 states. Join with us to hear about the impacts of marijuana legalization, specifically on teens and their parents, from law enforcement and chemical dependency experts as well as teens themselves.

---

Monday, January 27

6:30 p.m. Open House and Video

7:00 - 8:30 p.m. Teen Panel and
Speaker Discussion

Issaquah High School
Performing Arts Center

Program

- “Marijuana and Teens” Video
- Panel discussion with City of Issaquah teens
- Audience questions and discussion with Issaquah Chief of Police Paul Ayers and Jerry Blackburn, Director of Early Recovery Services with Lakeside-Milam Recovery Centers and Bellevue College Chemical Dependency Counseling Program

If you are unable to attend this Forum, a similar presentation will be held at Liberty High School on February 6th.

---

---

Sponsored by Drug Free Community Coalition

In collaboration with

- City of Issaquah
- Issaquah High School PTSA
- Issaquah Middle School
PTSA
- Tiger Mountain Community
High School
- City of Issaquah Police
- Friends of Youth
- Lakeside-Milam Recovery
Centers
- IDEA Project

For more information:
www.issaquahcommunitynetwork.com

---