

Legal Marijuana & Our Teens

Voters approved Initiative 502, legalizing recreational marijuana for adult use in Washington State starting on January 1, 2014. Yet marijuana remains illegal for teens and remains a federal crime in all 50 states. Join with us to hear about the impacts of marijuana legalization, specifically on teens and their parents, from law enforcement and chemical dependency experts as well as teens themselves.

Monday, December 2

6:30 p.m. Open House and Video

7:00 - 8:30 p.m. Teen Panel and Speakers

Sammamish City Council Chambers
801 228th Avenue SE, Sammamish

Program

- "Marijuana and Teens" Video
- Panel discussion by City of Sammamish teens
- Audience questions and discussion with Sammamish Police Chief Nathan Elledge and Jerry Blackburn, Lakeside-Milam counselor and BC chemical dependency counseling program instructor

If you are unable to attend this Forum, similar presentations will be made on the following dates:

January 27, Issaquah High School

February 6, Liberty High School

Sponsored by Drug Free Community Coalition

In collaboration with

- City of Sammamish
- Eastlake High School PTSA
- Eastside Catholic School
- IDEA Project
- Plateau Parents Network
- Sammamish Police
Department
- Skyline High School PTSA

For more information:

www.issaquahcommunitynetwork.com
