As summer approaches, it is time to look forward to nicer weather... but it also means that prom and party season will be here too! This is a perfect time to consider the serious topics of substance abuse/addiction and driving under the influence for our teens. Join Sergeant Jessica Sullivan and Belinda Lafferty as they share practical information for parents.

Skyline PTSA will host this presentation that addresses adolescent neurological development, the progression of addiction, as well as the legal aspects of drug and alcohol use for teens and their parents. We also address the local statistics and trends in drug/alcohol use and the Sammamish IDEA (Impaired Driving Education and Action) Project that was started in January.
