
Issaquah High PTSA

Hello, Issaquah High Supporters!

Welcome to the Issaquah High PTSA, the Parent-Teacher-Student Association. Our theme this year is "Building Connections" because we believe this will enhance your student's experience at IHS. Take a moment to read about our programs and events. Attend the PTSA General Membership Meetings to gain insight into IHS school planning and decision-making. Let us strengthen our community together.

New to IHS Night

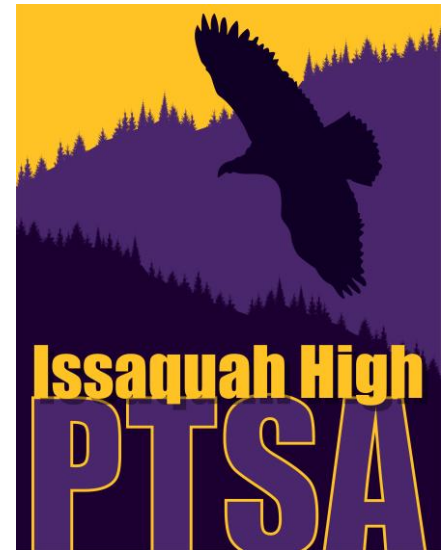

In coordination with Issaquah High, Associated Student Body (ASB), and Booster Club, Issaquah High PTSA hosts "New to IHS" Night before school begins. This is for 9th graders, 10-12th grade transfers, and any guardians. Watch for a date in the IHS Weekly Bulletin (PTSA section). Late Aug

New to IHS webpage

If you miss "New to IHS" Night, you can find answers to many Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) about IHS at www.tinyurl.com/ihptsaNewtoIHS. This webpage also includes a list of school acronyms and jargon.

College Roadmap

PTSA has a College Roadmap for your student at www.tinyurl.com/ihptsaCollegePlanning. It has suggestions on what to do for each year and links to helpful websites. Past webinars are at www.tinyurl.com/ihptsaCCPWebinars

General Membership Meetings

You are invited to an Issaquah High PTSA General Membership Meeting. Learn what is happening at the school and ask the principal any question. Join us on Zoom or hybrid (IHS Large Conference Room). The monthly meetings are on our calendar. Register for the Zoom link at www.issaquahhighptsa.org.

Big Heart Community Service Program

Any time after 8th grade promotion in June, students may begin earning volunteer hours towards an honor cord at graduation in the IH PTSA Big Heart Community Service Program. Learn more and record your volunteer hours online by May 1 of your senior year at www.tinyurl.com/ihptsacommunityservice.

New Family Connections

Are you new to the Issaquah area or want to connect with more IHS guardians? PTSA's New Family Connections hosts monthly events such as a Welcome Coffee, local hikes, Coffee with the Principal, and lunch out at a local restaurant. Both new and experienced IHS guardians are welcomed as long as you are willing to make new friends. www.tinyurl.com/ihptsanewfamily

Join the PTSA!
